Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) Responsive to communication(s) filed on 28 September 2005.
- 2a) This action is FINAL. 2b) This action is non-final.
- 3) Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The examiner acknowledges the receipt of applicant's request for reconsideration dated 9/28/05.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 25, 27-28, and 31-40 are objected to because of the following informalities: "the communication terminal" is inconsistent with mobile communication terminal. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

4. Claims 21-41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Sehr, U.S. Pat Pub No. 2001/0018660, hereinafter '660.

5. As per claim 21-22, 26, 29 and 41, '006 teach a method and system for ordering, loading, and using admission tickets, for access to access controlled service devices (abs. et seq.), having a contactless reading device/interface (pg. 3 at 0035 et seq. and pg. 7 at 0059), account ticket information (fig. 4), a reservation center (fig. 1, [2,3]), and transmission means (figs. 1-4, pg. 1 at 0004 and 0006 et seq.), comprising at least one admission ticket (figs. 4), a reservation center (fig. 1, [2,3]), an order channel (pg. 1 at 0004 et seq. and pg. 2 at 0025, pg. 3, at 0032 et seq.), a call number of the mobile terminal/ visitor card data (pg. 12 at 0084), and transmitting (means pg. 1 at 0004), for transmitting to the call numbered device/ visitor card data (col. 12 at 0084), ticket number and digital signatures (pg. 10 at 0077 and 0078), particular user verification (pg. 4, at 0037 et seq.), ordering data is indicated by the user, and access confirmation (pg. 4 at 0042 et seq. and col. 6 at 0052 et seq.). See also (abs. background, summary, figs. 1-4, pg. at 0024 et seq., pg. 2 at 0027-0029, pg. 4 at 0044 et seq., pg. 5 at 0050, pg. 7 at 0063 et seq.).

6. As per claims 23-25, and 27-28, the admission ticket having information regarding at least one access controlled device, and marking the ticket as used, and the reading device or the mobile communication device making the decision, digitally device signed identification, see '660 fig. 4 at access control and certification, pg. 3 at par. 0031 and 0035, pg. 4 par. 0036 and 0042 et seq., pg. 5 at 0051, pg. 6 at 0054, pg. 7 at 0059 et seq., pg. 8 at 0066.

7. As per claims 30 and 40, the contactless interface having energy supplied by a reading device is not explicitly taught. It is believed to be both inherent and notoriously well known in the data processing arts. A person of ordinary skill in the art could have modified a contactless or even a contact interface of '660 to have energy supplied by making use of the well-known principles of magnetic fields and induction to have power supplied to a smart card or the like. '660 contemplates that his interface devices may be any of the contact or contactless devices, including smart cards etc. (pg. 7 at 0059).

8. As per claims 31-39, they distinguish from claims 21-30, by reciting the system for performing the method steps; accordingly, they are rejected upon the same rationale as claims 21-30, see above.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 21-41 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

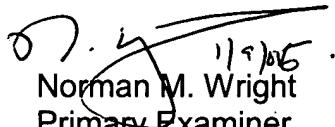

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
